

Low Humming Around the Corner

December 2020

Through the lights of the forest
And the dust inside cities
I found you away from all of it
Sitting somewhere in a pool of thoughts
Recounting memories
Away from the lost
Just to go into the frost
in a way close to yourself,
Away from all noise,
To be blinded by your sea.
